JAMESTOWN RACES BROUGHT TO CLOSE

General Exodus From Norfolk of Those Interested in Track.

VICTORY FOR STATE.

Attorney-General Pollard Issues Statement, and Officers of Track Define Their Position.

Nofolk, Va., April 10.—The Jamestown Jockey Club's spring meet, scheduled to last until the 17th of this month, came to an abrupt close last night, when officials of the club, after a brief conference in the Monticello Hotel, arrived at the conclusion that it would be best to await the decision of the appellate court upon the conviction of thirteen bookmakers Wednesday before attempting any more races.

In the minds of most of those who are acquainted with conditions as they exist, this sounds the death knell of racing in Virginia. While maintaining that no laws have been violated at the track, those in authority believe that the conviction of the men alleged to have flagrantly violated the law is sufficient reason for discontinuing the meet. Should the jury in the higher court reverse the decision of Magistrate S. Burnell Bragg, especially appointed to hear the cases then racing will be resumed at the track.

The meet Tuesday was a rather tame affair, though the crowd was good and the races spirited. However, many of the best stables have already been shipped to Havre de Grace, Md., and the bookmakers have fled pellmell to less dangerous fields. Fines might have been paid, but the added penalty of six months' imprisonment has driven off even the most combative of the bookies. Those not caught in the Baldwin dragnet, which was set on Tuesday, vamped long before the official representatives of Governor Henry C. Stuart could lay hands upon them.

Not a train or boat leaving Norfolk last night but carried a capacity passenger list, for the most part made up of men who follow the races as a means of livelihood. They are bound for all parts of the country—to any port save Norfolk. The city last night was deserted, or at least deserted as compared to the animated crowd that thronged the lobbies of the principal hotels Wednesday night shortly after the news of the convictions had been received.

Govenor Stuart, who is directly responsible for the drastic action taken, would make no statement upon the result of the track directors' meeting. He had fully made up his mind to bring forward all of the powerful machinery of the State government, and even the militia, if necessary to stop open betting at the track.

One of the many rumors spread abroad seeking to explain the cause of the raid charges that Richmond people are responsible. The story goes that Richmond wanted the track there, and that owners of real estate in the capital city, being unable to swing the deal, brought influence to bear with th result that Norfolk was made to suffer. The more thinking regard this rumor as absurd, but with patriotic pride of city many believe it and accept the statement at its face value.

GLYNN INEXORABLE.

Bars Doors to Relatives of Condemned Gunmen.

Albany, N. Y., April 10—Governor Glynn barred the doors of the executive chamber yesterday against even the mother of one, and the wives of two of the murderers of Herman Rosenthal.

Again proclaiming that neither prayer nor argument could recall his refusal to reprieve them, not even "Dago Frank," whose respite District Attorney Whitman is reported to be about to seek, the governor said:

"I wish to avoid useless and dramatic scenes I have had enough of that. Therefore I refused and still refuse to see even the relatives of the condemned men."

While the girlish wives of "Lefty Louie" and "Gyp the Blood" were pouring maledictions on the head of the governor, an aged woman robed in black groaned and sobbed in a foreign dialect. She was Mrs. Seidenscher, mother of "Whitey Lewis." All were taken to the office of Pardon Clerk Potter who in as sympathetic words as he could command said:

"I am very sorry, but the governor says it is useless. There can be no reprieve, commutation or respite. The law must take it course."

"But cannot we see the governor?" begged Mrs. Rosenberg. "I sent him a note from Rev Father Curry. All it asked was that my husband and the other boys be spared for one week —until the Jewish passover ends. What harm can come from that?"

ENDORSE WILSON'S STAND ON TOLLS

Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce Reverses Itself on Issue.

TAKES ANOTHER VIEW.

One of the Speakers Shows Foreign Ships Could Have Gone Through The Canal Free Under the Law.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 10.—By a unanimous vote the Chahmer of Commerce last night reversed itself on the Panama Canals uestion and adopted a resolution upholding President Wilson's stand in defense of the national honor. In taking this action the chamber heard new facts on the Panama Canal question and the President's attitude is not only a keeping of the nation's faith, but a good business stroke as well.

A year ago the chamber went on record as favoring the exemption from tolls of American ships engaged in the coastwise trade. Last night, however, the members changed their minds after hearing several ardent appeals by men who had given the subject deep study.

The unusual reversal was not only due to pleas by Alba B. Johnson and James Collins Jones for treaty observance by the United States, but also to a statement by Walter Wood, who has just returned from England and who brought with him the news that an official of the British Foreign Office, in charge of American affairs, had admitted that Great Britain made a mistake in asking for the canal tolls repeal.

He showed that England would profit more by the exemption than by the repeal and he said that British statesmen are just beginning to realize this. An unusual twist of the American shipping law makes this situation possible. According to Mr. Wood, the repeal of the toll act is a short and thoughtless way for the United States to get out of the treaty violation which it committed when it exempted American coastwise vessels from toll.

Mr. Wood declared that if American vessels are exempted, other nations can claim the same rights and that if England avails herself of her rights under the treaty, the commerce of heavy cargoes in American bottoms between the Atlantic and the Pacific coasts will be wiped out completely. The repeal o fthe tolls act, said Mr. Wood, is not the vital question. It is the question of preventing foreign nations from applying under the rights which the treaty gives them to engage in the coastwise trade, and the loss to American vessels of the commerce between the East and the West.

If the act exempting American coastwise vessels is sustained, Mr. Wood declaed the captain of an English or German vessel could enter any port on the Atlantic seaboard and, after paying the difference between the cost of construction of the vessel in his own country and America, could load a bulk cargo and demand clearance papers for San Francisco or any other port on the Pacific coast. The United States, according to Mr. Wood's interpretation of the treaty, would not dare to refuse his demand, and a foreign ship would be allowed to go through the canal free.

When this phase of the question was taken up by Mr. Wood with an official of the British Foreign Office, the latter admitted that Great Britain's note on the toll exemption act was written in haste, at a time when the question had not been given careful consideraalon. The official also admitted that British statesmen regretted the error and wished that they had waited, and then, after the toll exemption act was in force, demanded the full rights which they were entitled to.

Alba B. Johnson, in his plea to the Chamber to reverse itself, declared that it was a question of national honor.

BANQUET LAST NIGHT.

Maunday Thursday Observed by Scottish Rite Masons.

Maunday Thursday was observed in a solemn manner last night when 150 Scottish Rite Masons and their wives gathered in the Young People's Building and partook of the traditional banquet which is a feature of the observance. The affair was under the auspices of Randolph Chapter, Knight of the Rose Croix, No. 3, and the table decorations were in red.

At the conclusion of the banquet the lights were extinguished by the officers of the chapter while the Masonic choir composed of Henry K. Field, Kenneth W. Ogden, C. E. Outcalt and M. L. Dinwiddie sang "Miserere." H. Noel Garner, wise master, acted as toastmaster and the toasts were as follows: "Albert Pike," in silence; The President and Our Country, Charles H. Callahan; "The Supreme Council and the Grand Commander," William G. LeHew; "To the Memory of the Brethren of this degree whose labors here below have ceased during the present Masonic year" in silence; "The Grand Lodge of Virginia, Henry K. Field; "The Grand Chapter of Virginia;" J. E. W. Timberman; "The Grand Commandery of Virginia," E. E. Downham; "To all Masons and Masonic bodies of all rites and degrees over the face of the earth; honors and laurels to the worthy; health to the sick; comfort to the needy and succor to the oppressed everywhere, J. E. Alexander.

Miss Lucy M. Graves Wilmer J. Waller and C. E. Outcalt, sang solos. The banquet was served by the ladies of Martha Washington Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

City Engineer Dunn will revise his plans so that they will come within the prescribed limits. The rejected bids were as follows: Julian D. Knight, $13,840,-60; Joseph F. Rogers, $15,175; Samuel De Vaughan, $14,240; Richardson and Burgess, $14,697; Skinner and Garrett, $13,740; D. E. Bayliss, $14,055; Joseph DeSilva, $15,027.

Passing of Hobson.

The defeat of Mr. Hobson in his candidacy against Oscar Underwood for a seat in the Senate of the United States Senate is an event on which not Alabama alone, but the whole country is to be congratulated. It is not only that a statesmen of approved fidelity and ability has received at the hands of his people the reward due to faithful and eminent public service, but the country has been spared the spectacle of a great position assigned to one totally unfitted by gifts or acquirements to meet rightly its responsibilities. We do not care to speak harshly of the young demagogue whose vaulting ambition has so far overleaped itself to cope in the political arena with giants, besides whose statue his own dwindled to that of a pygmy. He has met decisive defeat where but yesterday he was vainglioriously claiming easy victory. He has also lost the seat in the House of Representatives whose duties he systematically ignored while using the time belonging to his constituents and for which he regularly drew unearned pay, for the prosecution of a campaign with the single object of winning for himself honors wholly undeserved. In the moment of fancied triumph his spokesmen portrayed him as merely pluming his wings in the senatorial contest for an Icarean flight with the white House as his goal. His pinions have been cut. His official career is to all appearances ended. He has been weighed in the balances and found wanting and is no longer to be regarded as a power for mischief. Like his compatriot Watson, he has had his day, and we are content to leave him in enforced retirement to chew the cud of disappointment, hoping that hereafter he will be the wiser for his recent experience.—Virginian-Pilot and the Norfolk Landmark.

PROBING CASE OF DOROTHY ARNOLD

Missing Young Woman Followed to Maternity Hospital Near Pittsburgh.

SHE THEN VANISHES.

Place Raided—Doctor Alleged to Have Admitted Heiress Had Visited His Office.

Pittsburgh, April 10.—Evidence secured here yesterday following the raid on a maternity hospital in Bellevue, a fashionable nearby suburb, indicates that Dorothy Arnold, the missing New York heiress who mysteriously disappeared more than two years ago, was most likely among the young women who visited that place and are now numbered among the missing.

District Attorney Jackson last night stated that Dorothy Arnold was traced to the office of Dr. C. C. Meridith, in the Schmidt Building, on Fifth avenue, and from there she dropped out of sight.

A short time later, when questioned by another physician, Dr. Meridith with an air of bravado, is said to have admitted that Miss Arnold visited his office. On being pressed for further information about her he is alleged to have intimated that her body had gone the way of several others in the "murder house," which was raided today.

Headed by Chief Clark and Assistant District Attorney John N. Dunn, a squad of county detectives this afternoon raided the Maternity Home which has been conducted by Dr. Meridith, for the past two years. Four persons were taken in the raid. They are: Dr. C. C. Meridith, Dr. H. E. Lutz, Miss Lucy D. Orr, a nurse in the home, and Mary Snyder, a domestic.

Dr. Meridith was immediately committed to jail in default of $12,-000 bail on charges of performing a criminal operation and larceny. Dr. Lutz was taken in charge by District Attorney Jackson and Miss Orr the nurse, was committed to jail.

District Attorney Jackson stated last night that he has evidence of five women who were operated on in the "home." One of these women, Mrs. Myrtle Allison, aged about 40 years, who conducted a boarding house in Wilkinsburg mysteriously disappeared in March, 1913.

Dr. Lutz, in a statement made to the District Attorney last night, said the Allison woman came to his office March 11, 1913, and while there collapsed. On March 17 she made an ante-mortem statement in which she admitted that Dr. Meridith had operated upon her.

According to Dr. Lutz, he then called Dr. Meridith on the telephone and Dr. Meridith visited the woman that night at 11 o'clock. After admitting that he had performed the operation, Lutz is reported as declaring, Meridith secured a wagon and removed Mrs. Allison at 1 o'clock in the morning. She has never since that time been seen either alive or dead by anyone.

Witnesses whose identity the District Attorney refuses to disclose are said to have testified that they saw Mrs. Allison's body placed in the big furnace in the "murder house" while she was unconscious but still breathing.

When Mrs. Allison was taken from Dr. Lutz's office by Meridith she had $1,000 in jewelry and a fine sealskin coat. These have also disappeared.

Several other young women who have been reported missing are known to have last been seen entering the "murder house."

In the raid on the Maternity home a large quantity of surgical instruments, an operating table and other medicinal supplies were taken. In the cellar was found two furnaces, either large enough to cremate two or three bodies at one time.

District Attorney Jackson last night stated that he expected further sensational developments tomorrow that may lead to more definite information regarding the connection of Meridith with Dorothy Arnold's dis-

MACHEN EXPLAINS BILLS.

Tells What General Assembly Accomplished at Recent Session.

Richmond, Va., April 10.—Lewis H. Machen, director of the newly created Legislative Reference Bureau, was the principal speaker yesterday afternoon at the weekly meting of the Equal Suffrage League, of Richmond. His subject was "Welfare Legislation of the General Assembly of 1914."

The last assembly, the speaker said, left more welfare legislation on the calendar than it passed. He then reviewed the bills that passed and explained their import. Among those he touched upon were the child labor law; improved laws for working women; contributory delinquency act; primary law; act giving juries option of making life imprisonmene penalty for murder in the first degree, and bill concerning the Virginia Home and Industrial school for Girls.

Following the address there was an open discussion, and Mr. Machen was asked to explain Virginia laws that were unjust to women. Among those he mentioned in this connection was the marriage law which gave parents the privilege of consenting to marriage of twelve-year-old daughters. He said this law should be rescinded. He then spoke on the laws of descent, saying that it is unjust that a wife should only inherit one-third of the estate of her husband if he died intestate, while a husband, under the same conditions, would take the whole of his wife's property. He also said that paents should have equal ownership over their minor children.

Miss Mary Johnston, who now resides in Bath county, was present at the meeting, and was called upon to speak. She said she was delighted to be back with her old friends and to greet them once again. She told her audience not to be discouraged by the failure of the Legislature to pass the suffrage bill, but too keep on working, and to take up their motto, "Do It Again, Do It Again."

BURNING OF THE CITY OF TAMPICO

Fire Adding to Horrors of Fierce Fighting For Control of Place.

THRILLING SCENES.

Shells From Federal Gunboats Split Tanks of Oil Plants Causing The Flames to Spread on River.

Vera Cruz, Mexico, April 10.—Burning oil tanks and palls of black smoke tell the story today of the terrific bombardment at Arbol Grande, according to disconnected reports from the Tampico battle zone.

The rebels, who have had possession for more than a day, of the immense refineries of the Waters-Pierce Company, are shelling all surrounding points believed to hold federals and in return the Mexican gunboats Vera Cruz and Saragosa, are bombarding the refinery property.

Shells from the gunboats have split wide dozens of tanks and burning oil was spread upon the river, endangering surrounding property, but presenting a thrilling spectacle as tank after tank was rent by the shells.

The fire in the refinery is reported to have become general, and it probably will be a complete loss when the final chapter in the battle is written.

Reports reaching here today justify the belief that Tampico is in the hands of the rebels. The consular agent at Tuxpam wired Consul Canada here that the city apparently had fallen.

A spectacular battle was that staged at Arbel Grande, where the rebels entrenched themselves in the oil refinery. It is estimated that mroe than one hundred crude oil tanks were struck by the shells of the federals and six big tanks were split.

They took fire immediately and, above them rose black clouds giving the appearance of a volcano in action.

The waerhouse of the Aguilla Oil Company was also destoyed during the desperate fight. The los sis said to be above $100,000, and the oil companies, it is asserted, are making strong representations to the State Department.

Rear Admiral Mayo, in a report, says that the fighting continues, but that the field advance of the rebels was checked by the strong fire from the Saagoss and Vera Cruz.

Sixty American women were on board the United States warships, and the German cruiser Dresden had gone further up the river to rescue others.

The federals are reported to be so hard pressed that all the political chiefs throughout the country have been ordered to force enlistments to the utmost.

The gunboat Bravo is being made ready for sailing from here to Tampico with 300 troops and ammunition, which have been urgently requested by the Tampico garrison.

Brownsville, Tex., April 10.—Reenforcements enroute to the aid of the Tampico fedeal garrison were defeated yesterday with the loss of 40 men, according to constitutionalist reports to Matamoras headquarters. The rebel loss was not given.

The report said Gen. Carrero Torres met the federals between San Louis Potosi and Tampico.

How to be Happy

Keep your disposition happy and always have a chum,
And choose companions from those friends who are never feeling glum,
Love to work and labor, earn more than it takes to live;
Have something to cheer up others, have something to spend and give,
Of friends there will be many to enjoy what you can earn,
And they will never leave you while you do the friendly turn.

The above is good philosophy and in my effort to live up to it I am reaching out for more business.

ROBBED PETRIFIED MAN

Annie Lee Fined $50 and Sentenced to Serve Six Months in Jail

A man who gave his name as Frank Worden arirved in this city a few days ago for the purpose of exhibiting himself, he being a victim of a strange affliction. His lower limbs are hard as stone. Worden is entirely helpless and has to be lifted about, and spends most of his time on his back on a couch. He is accompanied by a young man who manages his business affairs, and the latter's wife and another young woman compromise the quarternion.

Worden has been occupying a room on the first floor of the Opera House building, and shortly after two o'clock this morning Sergeant Scott while passing the building heard cries for help. Upon entering and making an investigation the sergeant was told by Worden that a woman named Annie Lee had stolen four twenty dollar bills from his person. The officer started in pursuit of the accused and found her in the red light district. He took her in custody and secured $18.25 which he found in her possession. While on the way to the station house Sergeant Scott saw the woman throw something into a feed trough at the northwest corner of Cameron and Fairfax streets, and upon searching the trough he found four twenty dollar bills.

The case came before the Police Court this morning. Worden was brought into the court on a stretcher, accompanied by the other members of the party.

Sergeant Scott testified substantially as given above. It appeared that Worden had employed the Lee woman to wait upon him while he is in Alexandria, and last night she abstracted the four twenty dollar bills from his underclothing, and after having taken a pistol which was lying by the side of the helpless man and a huge doll, she departed.

When the woman was asked if she had anything to say in her defense, she told the court that Worden gave her the money to keep for him. This Worden positively denied.

Justice Caton imposed a fine of fifty dollars upon the accused and in addition sentenced her to serve six months in jail.

GOOD FRIDAY-PASSOVER

Hot Cross Buns and Unleavened Bread in Evidence in Many Homes Today

Services appropriate to the Passover will be held in the Jewish synagogue on North Washington street at half past seven o'clock this evening.

The origin of the Passover is familiar to most people in the civilized world, and its inauguration as recited in the Book of Exodus is one of the most interesting portions of the Old Testament. The hasty exit of the Hebrews from Egypt on that memorable night marked the beginning of the nation which has played such an important part in the history of the world. From a little band of less than one hundred souls, when Jacob and his descendants entered the land of the Pharoahs, the Israelites in the four hundred years which had followed had increased to about three million people. The anniversary of their exodus from the land of bondage has been celebrated ever since, wherever the lot of the Jews had been cast. During this feast they eat unleavened bread and the Seder services, conducted in the homes of this people, is suggestive of the escape of fathers from the cruel bondage of Egypt.

While the Jews are rejoicing and making merry over the rememberance of the signal interposition of Jehovah in their behalf, the Christian church, the great limb of the parent tree, is passing through a day which has been observed in prayer and fasting by followers of Jesus Christ for many centuries. It commemorates the wark of redemption performed by the Holy One of Israel in offering himself a propitiation for the sins of the world..

Hot cross buns are features of the season, and at an early hour this morning these reminders of the days of old England were being distributed from baker's wagons.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

NOT A CANDIDATE.

Says he Has No Intention of Opposing Repreesntative A. J. Montague.

Richmond, Va., April 10.—State Senator Louis O. Wendenburg says that he had no intention of announcing himself a candidate to oppose Andrew Jackson Montague for a seat in the House of Representatives from the Third Virginia Congressional district.

In discussing the report that he might become a candidate for Congress, Senator Wendenburg admitted that some pressure had been brought to bear upon him by friends urging that he place his "hat in the ring." He said, however, that he had not been beguiled by the siren voices, and that it was his intention to devote himself to his profession and to "saw wood."

The name of the Henrico county senator is being prominently mentioned as that of a possible senatorial candidate from the city of Richmond to the General Assembly after annexation has taken him into Greater Richmond. Mr. Wendenburg said yesterday, however, without equivocation, that he had no ambition at this time to seek an office in Washington. He said that such reports were erroneous and absolutely without foundation in fact.

VACANCIES IN STATE SENATE.

Federal Appointments Will Result in Resignation of Hart and Moncure.

Richmond, Va., Apil 10. — State Senator Jno. M. Hart, whose appointment as Collector of Internal Revenue for the Western District of Virginia has just been confirmed, was in Richmond last night. Both Senator Hart and Senator R. C. L. Moncure will present their resignations as members of the state senate to Lieuenant-Governor Ellyson at once. It is expcted that steps will be taken to issue writs for special elections in the two senatorial districts probably on the date of the regular November elections, in order that both districts may be represented at the special tax session in January. Primaries may be held at some convenient time in the summer or fall.

Senator Hart represented the fourth senatorial district, which is composed of Roanoke and Montgomery counties and the cities of Roanoke and Radford.

Senator Moncure represented the thirteenth senatorial district, composed of the counties of Spottsylvania, Stafford and Louisa and the city of Fredericksburg.

Among the names that have been suggested as possible candidates in a Democratic primary to succeed Senator Moncure are C. O'Connor Goolrick, of Fredericksburg, a former member of the House of Delegates; Dr. T. Welsh Dew, of Spottsylvania county, and Delegate R. Lindsay Gordon, Jr., of Louisa county.

CRIPPLED AT FIRE.

Miss Maud Bragg is Taken To Hospital After Home is Burned.

Norfolk, Va., April 10.—Miss Maud Bragg, sister of Attorney S. Burnell Bragg, narrowly escaped death when the Bragg home near Ocean View burned only a few days ago. She has serious injury to her knee cap caused by a fall while running for assistance after getting out of the burning house.

The doctors say that unless careful attention is given the knee is liable to cause Miss Bragg to limp. She is in the Norfolk Protestant Hospital.

Mr. Bragg said he was still without knowledge as to the origin of the fire which destroyed his home. He said the furnace was not being used and that the fire had appeared to start at a different place in the house from that in which the electric lights entered.

Mr. Bragg said there was no fire in the house and that supper had been cooked on an oil stove, which was out a number of hours before the fire started.

Would Bombard Race Course.

Norfolk, Va., April 10.—B. Gray Tunstall, city treasurer of Norfolk, sent the following telegram to President Wilson.

"Should the governor of Virginia be unable with the State militia to break up racing in Norfolk county, will you not have all the thirteen-inch guns at Fort Monroe deliver a broadside against the race track?

'To make it sure you might send down the Atlantic squadron.

"Please notify me before the bombardment begins.

"Hopefully yours, in Democracy.

"B. GRAY TUNSTALL."

GIRL SWIMS FOR LIFE.

Strokes Enable Her to Avoid 40-Foot Cascade at Hot Springs, Va.

Hot Springs, Va., April 10.—The fact that Norma Albert, 6 years old, had become an expert swimmer saved her life Monday when she lost her balance and toppled from a bridge over the cascades here. No one saw her fall and within a few moments she had been swept from the 15-foot cascade into the deep pool into which it empties.

The little girl swam desperately, devoting all her strength to an effort to avoid being carried beyond the cascade below. Just as her strength was beginning to leave her M. N. Monnell, a young man whose home is in Toledo, came through the gorge and saw her plight. He jumped into the cascade and after a fight of fifteen minutes succeeded in getting her to the side bank.

She was but a few inches from the brink of the second cascade when rescued, and would have been dashed to death upon its rocky base.

TWO MEN DROWN.

Car Plunges Form Nofolk Ferry With Seven Men.

Norfolk, Va., April 10.—Juck Tully, of New York, and W. J. Vanaan, of Norfolk, were drowned last night when an automobile containing seven men plunged into the Elizabeth river from the deck of the ferryboat Rockaway. William Pinter, L. Hanff, Nat Vogel, Burt Johnson, and Richard Smith, all of New York, were rescued by Howard Reed, a sailor, from the battleship New Hampshire. Reed jumped overboard, grabbed two men by the hair, and the others hung to his clothing until he was pulled back on the ferryboat by several other men, who formed a human ladder.

Johnson and Tully were arrested in the raid made on the Jamestown track by armed detectives last Tuesday. They had just been released from jail last night and were on their way to Norfolk from Portsmouth when the accident occurred.

The automobile plunged through the gates of the ferry steamer just as the boat was entering the slip at her pier. The men had little chance to jump for their lives, and Tully and Canavan did not succeed in getting out of the car before it went down. Smith was severely cut when his head came in contact with the side of the steamer. All of the survivors were sent to St. Vincent's Hospital.

DIED FROM INJURIES.

Norfolk, April 10.—After lingering between life and death for nearly six hours, Sidney Hugh Whitehurst, Jr., 23 years old, 1106 Granby street, died at the Protestant Hospital at 4:20 o'clock Wednesday morning from injuries received late Tuesday night when a twin motorcycle in which he, and two friends were riding was struck by an unidentified automobile on the Jamestown boulevard near the intersection of the cross road leading to the Jamestown race track.

Earl W. Walker, of Norfolk, and Ralph Midgett, of Portsmouth, the other occupants of the vehicle, were badly bruised about the knees, face and hands when they were thrown on the ground by the impact.

SUNK OFF BARNEGAT.

Norweigan Bark Rammed Steamer Wednesday Night.

Newport News, Va., April 10.—Bringing the body of the captain and eleven survivors of the crew of the Norweigan bark Orellan, which she rammed and sunk off Barnegat, N. J., Wednesday night at 10 o'clock, the American steamer Peter H. Crowell arrived last night from Boston. The eleven survivors, which include one woman, wife of the first mate, were picked from the water by the Crowell's boats after their own boats, two in number, had been swamped. The captain was dead when picked up. Two men went down with the Orellan.

The Crowell did not dock last night, and Captain Vail declined to give out any information concerning the collision, but made a report to Norweigan Consul M. M. Richardson.

Capt. Vail reported to the consul that the collision occurred during misty weather, and declared it was due to the poor lights displayed by the Orellan. The Crowell struck the bark while steaming almost full speed. The wooden ship filled rapidly, and 50 minutes after being struck sank in 17 fathoms of water.

In his report, Captain Vail said that great confusion prevailed aboard the bark following the crash, Captain Johannsen losing control of his men entirely. The sailors succeeded in launching two boats, but after Captain Johannsen and the mate had succeeded in getting the latter's wife into one of them the men piled into the boats so wildly that both were swamped. In the meantime, the Crowell was standing by, and Capt. Vail immediately ordered his lifeboats lowered. The sea was calm, and the woman and ten men were picked up with comparative ease.

Captain Johannsen, who was 65 years of age, was dead when taken in one of the rescue boats, and his death is thought to have been due to heart disease, aggravated by the excitement of the wreck.

Two members of the crew failed to leave in the boats and went down with the ship.

In their haste to leave the bark members of the crew did not stop to get their personal belongings, and some were scantily clad, and all were half frozen from their stay in the water between the time their boats were swamped and the time they were picked up. They were taken on the Crowell and made comfortable for the remainder of the night. The Orellan was 57 days out from Boulogne, France, to New York, and the Crowell was bound from Boston to this port.

BANQUET SPEECHES WERE INTERESTING DATA.

The response to the tonsts at the banquet given last night at the Young People's Building by Randolph Chapter Rose Croix, Scottish Rite Masons, differed from the after-dinner speeches that are ordinarily heard at the conclusion of most menus, as they were on practical lines and there was an absence of the remarks in lighter vein that generally conclude entertainments of this character. Charles H. Callahan, who has a nation-wide reputation as a writer on historical subjects, was the first speaker, taking for his subject "The President and Our Country." He dwelt on the early history of our nation, particularly those events connected with Alexandria. In a graphic and intensely interesting manner he traced the birth of our nation which had its inception in this city. The conference of the colonial governors held here in 1755 he declared was the beginning of the taxation of the colonies which resulted in the Revolutionary war. A second conference held in Alexandria after the return of Washington from his military duties, primarily called for the purpose of settling the boundary line between Maryland and Virginia, resulted in the strengthening of the national government, to be followed later by the adoption of the constitution. He spoke of the great men in the early history of our country, many of whom were Masons and who drew their inspiration from the lessons of Masonry.

William G. LeHew responded to the toast of the Supreme Council and the Sovereign Grand Commander told of the life of James D. Richardson, of Alabama, who is now at the head of the Southern Jurisdiction of Scottish Rite Masons. He traced Mr. Richardson's brilliant political career which he relinquished a number of years ago to devote his entire time to Masonry. Many facts of interest were brought out relative to the growth of the order in this country. The speaker referred to the Southern Jurisdiction as the "mother council of the world," and said that it includes in its jurisdiction all of the United States except the New England States and a few of the eastern and middle west states which are under the Northern Jurisdiction.

The Grand Lodge of Virginia was the subject of the toast of Henry K. Field, and the history of its organization was traced by the speaker. During the course of his speech he paid a beautiful tribute to the Bible which he declared was the foundation stone of Masonry.

The Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Virginia was the subject of the toast of J. E. W. Timberman, and he gave much information regarding this branch of the fraternity which he described as the solid structure standing between the foundation—the Blue Lodge—and the capstone—The Commandery.

E. E. Downham spoke on the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar and wove a most interesting and instructive discourse on the foundation and history of this branch. Many events connected with the early history of the grand commandery and its trials during the civil war were told by the speaker.

The last speaker was James E. Alexander, who, owing to the lateness of the hour, had but little time in which to cover the extensive subject which had been allotted to him. His remarks were coushed in sympathetic terms which were appreciated by those who heard him.

PHILADELPHIANS REVERSE POSITION.

A dispatch from Philadelphia on the first page of the Gazette should be read closely by all who have interested themselves in the canal tolls issue. It will be seen that the Chamber of Commerce of the Quaker City has completely reversed itself in the matter of tolls on ships which may pass through the Panama Canal and endorses the action of President Wilson in recommeding the expunging of the clause which would allow the merchant marine of the United States to use the canal free. The Philadelphians merely represent many other people who are now viewing this issue from a common sense standpoint, waiving all political issues which some are endeavoring to fan into a flame.

One of the speakers at the meeting of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, (Walter Wood), made the matter plain enough to all who want to understand this much-discussed matter. He shows that under the law foreign ships could go through the canal without paying tolls.

Mr. Wood's argument should be studied closely, as he produces facts hard to controvert.

Some republican papers have seized this opportunity to discredit the present administration and, strange to say, they are being aided by a few democratic journals and politicians. Many, however, who suddenly expressed their opinions on the President's policy are now listening to the arguments which are being used used to show that the executive did not go off half-cocked, but that he had given this important matter his closest attention before reading his message to Congress.

The Chamber of Commerce of a city like Philadelphia, is a sensitive thermometer, and the fact that such a body, representing, as it does, the pulse of a large Atlantic seaboard city should see the error of its way is suggestive.

Attempted Robery.

Staunton, Va., April 10.—A daring attempt to rob the safe of A. T. Higginbotham was made presumably early yesterday morning. Entrance was effected through a window in the south side of the building on Augusta street with the aid of a ladder, which was lying in the alley.

The thief secured a hatchet and an iron bar used about the elevator and hammered the knob and combination from the safe door. The work was evidently that of someone unfamiliar with safes as no amount of tampering with the crude tools could have made an entrance into the safe.

Apparently the man was looking for money as nothing was disturbed in the building. The safe is in the front office on Augusta street.

A Neglected Cold Often Affects the Lungs

Many serious cases of Throat or Lung Trouble can be directly traced to a cough or cold which has been neglected. If you notice that a cough persists in clinging to you take warning. If you neglect trying to stop this supposed trivial trouble the throat and lungs later become affected. In many cases Eckman's Alterative has been the means of bringing permanent relief. Investigate this case:—

Saratoga, N. Y.

"Gentlemen: For five or six years I was troubled with cough and expectoration. I also had a high fever. My case was declared Lung Trouble by my physician. I was given Cod Liver Oil, Creosote and other medicines, all without benefit. At Christmas time, 1908, I was not expected to live. Calling Dr. H. H. McCarthy, he advised the use of Eckman's Alterative, which I took with excellent results. I have gained in weight. I go out in all weathers and have had no cough or cold whatever. I give these facts to encourage others to use Eckman's Alterative."

(Affidavit) JAS. W. KANALY.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

NEWS OF THE DAY

The Russian minister of finance during the session of the budget committee of the duma yesterday drew the attention of the committee to the expediency of circumspection in the disposal of public funds, declaring that the money might be required for military purposes.

Former Governor Eben S. Draper, of Massachusetts, died at Greenville, S. C., last night. The one time chief executive of the State had lain in a stupor for eighteen hours. The direct cause of death was cerebral hemorrhage of the brain.

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, strong partisan Republican, of Massachusetts, yesterday delivered the most able argument in behalf of the repeal of the tolls exemption clause that has been placed before the country since the controversy became acute. Senator Lodge is the ranking Republican member of the Foreign Relations Committee. Although he dealt chiefly and eloquently with the preservation of our national honor and the retention of the faith and good will of other nations, his argument touched on every phase of the matter.

Rumors have been circulated for several days that the administration is preparing a surprise for its free tolls repeal opponents, which will rival in effectiveness the so-called lobby inquiry undertaken against the tariff obstructionists. Details in regard to this proposed free tolls backfire came out yesterday when it was disclosed that Postmaster General Burleson was considering of proceeding in the courts against certain newspapers, which, it is charged, are publishing as news subsidized articles in favor of free tolls and against the administration.

Hundreds of inhabitants of the town of Meihsien, Huhsien and Chowchih, China, were murdered yesterday by brigands under the leadership of the notorious "White Wolf." These towns are near Sian Fu, capital of the Shensi Province. After killing the inhabitants the brigands looted the churches and started out for neighboring cities. All foreigners in the Shensi Province were ordered into Sian Fu yesterday, where protection is given by 1,500 troops. More troops are being rushed to the city and these will be used against the brigands.

LANGHORNE SISTER DEAD.

Mrs. T. Moncure Perkins, One of Five Virginia Beauties, Dies of Apoplexy.

New York, April 10.—Mrs. T. Moncure Perkins, of Richmond, one of the five beautiful Langhorne sisters, died from apoplexy with startling suddenness yesterday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, the latter her sister.

Mrs. Perkins had been here for four days visiting Mrs. Gibson. The three sisters had been together nearly every day, enjoying the reunion. They were all on a shopping tour today, and returned to the Gibson home after 4 o'clock.

It was 5 o'clock when Mrs. Perkins was stricken. The family physician, Dr. H. S. Patterson, reached the house in a few moments. Every effort was made, every remedy known to modern medicine used, but the patient did not rally. Death came at 7:40.

Mrs. Perkins had reached the age of 47. She had retained her beauty to a wonderful degree. Many considered her the loveliest of the five sisters. Her face is reproduced in many of the famous Gibson drawings.

Mrs. Cheswell Langhorne, mother of the girls whose beauty made them so widely known, died in Lynchburg, Va., ten years ago. She was a Keene of the Virginia family of that name. Colonel Langhorne, the father, is a widely known and wealthy railroad contractor, but retired years ago.

Mrs. Perkins leaves three children. The oldest just of age, is Cheswell B. Langhorne Perkins. The others are girls—Olive and Mary.

NEGRO CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Suffolk, Va., April 10.—Will Powell, a colored drayman, lost his life Wednesday afternoon beneath tons of old brick, when the walls of the old brick kiln at the Standard Manufacturing Company's old box plant, on which a company of men were working, fell catching the unfortunate man beneath the debris. Workmen have been busy several days demolishing the old plant, and Powell was hauling away old lumber, etc. His work had been completed, it is alleged, and he had been warned to get away from the wall, then undermined, and ready to fall, when he either turned to pick up another piece of wood, or moved too slowly and was caught.

RAIDS BRITISH MUSEUM.

London, April 10.—Historic exhibits which it will be impossible to replace, were damaged in the British Museum yesterday by a militant suffragette armed with a hatchet. The woman entered the Asiatic room of the museum, smashed numerous cases and shattered valuable exhibits. Before attendants could reach her the suffragettes had done considerable damage. She fought off the first men who approached her but finally was overpowered and arrested. Seven big cases containing exhibits were smashed by the women. Some of the most valuable porcelain sups, saucers and plates were destroyed, ruining the sets to which they belonged. After being arrested the woman steadfastly refused to give her name.

Belfast, April 10.—Irish militant suffragettes yesterday burned the historic Orlands mansion at Carrickfergus. The loss is estimated at $50,000. Suffrage literature was found about the ruins. This is the latest of a series of incendiary fires in the Belfast district, which resulted in the arrest of Dorothy Evans and Maude Muir whose trial was halted yesterday by rioting of suffragettes in the court room.

BOY CONFESSES TO MURDER.

Used an Axe to End Life of Uncle While he Was Asleep.

Hawkinsville, Ga., April 10.—Using an axe as an instrument of death, Harry Lee, 18 years old, has confessed that he killed his uncle, P. O. Bonnell, here early Sunday, according to an announcement by the police.

"I killed my uncle because he continually abused me and would not give me money to go home with" the youth is reported to have told the detectives, who obtained the alleged confession after several hours questioning.

Bonnell, who was 22 years old, and a baker was killed while sleeping. Lee, who roomed with him, gave the alarm, saying his uncle had been killed by a negro and that he was awakened just as the negro was escaping from the room.

Lee was held by the police immediately after the killing. He later was released and again taken in charge.

WANTS MARRIAGE ANNULLED.

Mrs. Selma Boyd, of Rich Virginia Family, Brings Suit.

New York, April 10.—Mrs. Selma Boyd, member of a wealthy Richmond, (Va.) family, in 1908 read a letter which has resulted in a suit for annulment of her marriage to Clarence Boyd three years. Upon opening the letter Mrs. Boyd learned that her husband's first wife was still living, also that Boyd and Mrs. Hortense Boyd, who was wife No. 1, were not divorced.

This information came out yesterday when Mrs. Boyd took the stand in her annullment suit. She testified that she married Boyd in Cleveland in 1905 after he had told her that he was legally divorced from his first wife in this city. The witness said she did not make an investigation or question her husband further regarding the first decree of divorce.

The deposition of Mrs. Boyd No. 1 was admitted in evidence. The affidavit contained the information that Mrs. Hortense Boyd is still the legal wife of Boyd and that no decree of divorce has been granted to either of the contracting parties.

King on Operating Table.

Stockholm, April 10.—King Gustav submitted to an operation at the Sophia Home early today. It was stated that the operation was due merely to ulcer of the stomach, but the Afton-Bladet is authority for the statement that the king is suffering from cancer.

His Majesty was said to have been entirely composed when placed upon the operating table. The operation was declared successful, but it is expected it will be four or five weeks before King Gustav will be able to leave his room.

Queen Victoria accompanied the king, to the hospital last night. She will remain in the Home until her husband is fully recovered.

Crown Prince Gustavius Adolphus was designated as regent during his father's illness.

TROUBLE EXPECTED.

I. W. W. Will Resist New York Police Sunday.

New York, April 10.—Threats of bloodshed and rioting on the part of the I. W. W. and the anarchists at Union Square on next Saturday, in the event the police seek to prevent them from parading, have been uttered. From reliable sources it was learned thiit preparations are being made by the members of the unemployed, who are working in harmony with the I. W. W. and the anarchist leaders to make a big demonstration of their principles, and they are planning to go as far as possible to jeer and defy the police.

The anarchists are jubilant over the denunciation of the police as the result of the events of last Saturday, and they are encouraged by the mild treatment of the persons in court. They are reported to have sent out word to different nearby cities, asking that more men come to the city for the meeting Saturday. Already hoboes, panhandlers and tramps, many of whom are armed are arriving in the city, and they are determined to override the police authorities if the least possible opportunity is given them.

The situation is regarded in some quarters as exceedingly serious. The talk among the I. W. W. and the anarchists in secluded quarters today was remarkably bold.

Such conversations as the following were heard.

"If the police get fresh on Saturday, there is going to be the same thing that Alexander Bergmann pulled off in Pitsburgh. Now is our time. We have the police cowed, and we have one judge with us already."

Would End the Death Penalty.

New York April 10.—At the yearly dinner of the Unitarian Club, at the Hotel Manhattan last night, Bishop David H. Greer, who recently prayed with the "gunmen" in their cells in Sing Sing, spoke.

The bishop declared his visit to the gunmen had impressed upon him the cruelty and futility of capital punishment. He said Sing Sing should be razed as would be razed the walls of a pest house and a sensibleand humanitarian institution erected.
